PREFACE

Nearly thirty years have passed since research for a genealogy of the Maine Hinckleys was begun. For the first few years Doris Rowland, since deceased, and Marjorie Higgins did the research while I did the typing. Before Doris passed away, she turned over responsibility for completing this project to me. Since then a great deal of additional material has been accumulated, the result being this book. If it had not been for the valuable work done by both Doris and Marjorie so many years ago, this project might very well not have been completed.

This book has been prepared in the Register Format, with all children in a given family being assigned a lower case Roman numeral in their order of birth, if known, and only those children having issue being assigned an Arabic numeral just before the Roman numeral. Children without issue have all vital information pertaining to them shown following their names. Those with issue will have information relating to them given in the next generation.

The following are explanations of some of the abbreviations used throughout the book:

b	date of birth	m	married
bapt	baptized	ME	Maine
d	date of death	MOCA	Maine Old Cemeteries Assoc.
int	intentions

As will be seen by the reader, there are copies of various old documents such as wills, inventories, baptism records, and deeds. There are typewritten transcriptions for each document, except for the baptism records on page 6, in the Appendix section to permit the reader to more easily understand what was written. This is due to the difficulty in interpreting the handwriting and language used at that time.

It has been impossible to positively account for or to locate each and every descendant without taking so much more time that the book would never be published at all. To this end, it is my hope that the information presented here will be of help to others either by providing them with their ancestry back to the immigrant or the clues needed to do more research on the family.

ENGLISH ANCESTRY

Hinckley is an ancient name in England. There is a town called Hinkley in the county of Leicester, about 100 miles northwest from London. John de Hinkele was high sheriff of Staffordshire, 1327-30. John Hinkley was esquire to High Earl of Stafford, who in his Will, dated Sept. 25, 1385, bequeathed "to John Hinkley, my esquire...". [See Ref. 58]

The village of Harrietsham, England, lies next to Lenham and seven miles southeast of Maidstone. It contains a very ancient church, the earliest part is said to date from 1150. The old font in which doubtless the Hinkley children were baptized still stands. Steden Street, where one of John Hinkley's tenements was, is not a name now known at Harrietsham, but it seems probable that it was in that part of the village where rises Stede Hill, at the foot of which nestles the church, and on the crest of which is Stede Court. [See Ref. 157, pg. 316]

Samuel Parker Hinkley of New York made quite a study of the family coat of arms, and an engraved coat of arms is in Matthews' American Armory and Blue Book by John Matthews. In his opinion, the American Hinkleys should use:

Arms: Gules a chevron engrailed argent
Crest: On a torse argent and gules a lion's head erased proper
Motto: Je ne change qu'en mourant
(I only change in dying)

HINCKLEY

In History of Hinkley (England) by Henry James Francis, 1930, Mr. F. H. Hinkley thinks the following pedigree correct:

"John de Henclyne of Tenham, Kent, member of the Cinque Ports, assessed for Knighting the Black Prince in 1346, paid 20£ in 1348 for the farm of Gore & Pete and 16£ for the rent of Mellefeld (Tenham) to the steward of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

John Henclive (Sr.), presumed son of above.
John Henclive (Jr.)
John Henclyf (the elder), of Tenham, by Will dated 1464, left land in Mellefeld as well as other properties in Tenham. He also left 'Johnthomas gardyn' and 'Lytyl gardyn' to his sons to glase a long window on the North bed of the Chyrche at Tenham. The chancel in which this glass was placed in Tenham church is still known as 'The Hinkley Chancel'. He left a wife Jane and sons.
John Henkele of Tenham (Kent), made a Will, 1484, leaving various property in Tenham and Lenham to his wife Marjorie and to his sons, John, Robert and Thomas."

It is thought that John Hencliff, by whose Will (1463) windows are given to Hinkley Chapel in Tenham Church, is the father of John Henkele (Will 1483/4) for he gives certain gardens to John Henkele who left in his turn a garden to his son John Henkle. Reference to bequest of windows on the Will of John Hencliff of 1463 is to be found in Hasted's History of Kent, under Tenham.

Line of descent from John Henkele (above) as collated by Samuel Parker Hinkley, Esq., found in [Ref. 157, pg. 316] (his papers were at one time located in the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, Mass., according to a letter in 1969, but a recent search revealed nothing):

John Henkele, of Lenham, Kent, Will dated Jan. 5, 1483/4, had wife Marjorie and sons, John, Robert and Thomas. His son:
John Henkle of Lenham, Kent, was overseer of Robert's Will, 1522. No Will of this John has been found but he was probably the father of the next John. His son:
John Hynckleye, of Harrietsham, was buried at Harrietsham, June 25, 1577; m. (l) Johane --, who was buried at Harrietsham, June 23, 1563/4; m. (2) July 3, 1570, Aves Elles, who survived him. Children by first wife:
1 John
2 Robert (mentioned below)
3 Anne, bapt. at Harrietsham Oct. 8, 1539
Child by second wife:
4 Anne or Agnes, bapt. at Harrietsham, Jan. 1, 1571/2.
Robert Hynckley, of Harrietsham, was buried there Mar. 27, 1606; m. (1) Elizabeth --, who was buried at Harrietsham, Nov. 2, 1574; m. (2) Feb. 10, 1574/5, Katherine --, widow of Thomas Leese, of Throwly, who d. 1574. She probably d. before 1605 as her husband does not mention her in his Will. Children by Elizabeth:
1 Thomas, bapt. Dec. 28, 1562.

2 Clemen, bapt. 1570, not mentioned in her father's Will.
3 Isaac, bapt. Oct. 8, 1571.

Children by Katherine:

4 Stephen, bapt. Feb. 2, 1575/6; buried at Harrietsham, Apr. 10, 1577.
5 Stephen (the 2nd), bapt. Feb. 15, 1578/9.
6 Margaret, bapt. Oct. 30, 1580; buried at Harrietsham, Apr. 30, 1598.
7 Elizabeth, bapt. Sept. 30, 1582, m. and had dau. mentioned in Robert's Will, named Cicelye.
8 Catherine, bapt. abt. 1584/5; mentioned in her father's Will.
9 Mary, bapt. Feb. 5, 1587/8; mentioned in her father's Will.
10 Samuel, bapt. May 25, 1589; the immigrant to New England.
11 John, b. abt. 1591; mentioned as a minor in father's Will.

The following are excerpts taken from the wills of John Henkele, Robert Henkle, John Hynckleye and Robert Hynckley:

Will of John Henkele of Leneham, co. Kent, dated Jan. 5, 1483/4:

> To be buried in the churchyard of St. Mary's, Leneham. My daughter Anne. My moveable goods to my wife Margaret and my sons, John, Robert, and Thomas in equal parts. Executors: my sons John and Robert. Overseer: John Howlott. My will regarding my lands and tenements. My son John to have my messuage and garden in Tenham, with marsh called Chloemarsh and three acres of land called Cooneer during the life of my wife, with reversion at her death to my son Thomas. To my son Robert my messuage in Leneham, with two acres of land next Lovegrove. My wife Margaret to remain in occupation of my house at Leneham for eight years after my decease. Witnesses: Mr. John Walker, John Howlott, Hugh Kingsland and John Moor. Proved by the executors Mar. 17, 1483/4. (Archdeaconry of Canterbury, Vol. 3, fo. 495)

Will of Robert Henkle of the parish of Lenham, in the Diocese of Canterbury, Dec. 30, 1522:

> My body to be buried in the churchyard of "our blessed ladie assuption of Lenham. To the high altar there, for lights, etc. The residue of all my goods to Johane my wife, whom I make my executrix. I make William A. Chambre and John henkle, my brothers, overseers. Johane my wife to take the profits of my messuage that I now dwell in, a garden lying next the tenement of John Hores, and of a barn, for life, and after her decease to my daughter Isabell. Immediately after my death I will the messuage that I bought of mr. John Brent, gentleman, to daughter Isabell. Witnesses: Thomas Partiche, Richard Kyple, Mighell Furmyngne, John Furmer and others. Proved Feb. 4, 1522/3 by the oaths of Thomas Partriche and John Hynkle and commission issued to the executrix named in the will. (Archdeaconry of Canterbury, vol. 15, fo. 9)

Will of John Hynckleye, of Haryetsham in the county of Kent and Diocese of Canterbury, May 5, 1577:

My body to be buried in the churchyard of Haryetsham. To the poor. To the reparation of the church of Haryetsham 3s. 4d. To Alyce Fekyns, wife of John Fekyns, 12d. To godson Henrye Hynckleye 12d. To Katheryne Lytlehare, my daughters daughter. To my wife, Avysse, two bushels of wheat lying among the wheat of my son Robert Hyncklye. All my goods and cattle to my wife Avysse and daughter Annys, and to the latter certain pewter household goods [specified] and at the age of twenty-one 10£, to be paid by my son Robert. For default of payment, daughter Annys to enter into my chief messuage at Haryetsham, wherein Robert, my son, now dwelleth, and lands thereto belonging until the sum is paid. If Annys die before her said age, my wife to have 5£, and Henry Hyncklye and John Hyncklye, sons of my son John Hyncklye all have 20s each. To Thomas Hyncklye, son of Robert Hyncklye, my son. The residue of all goods and cattle bequeathed now in the occupation of Robert Hyncklye, I give to him and make him executor. Henrye Smoothgyne and Robert Wyllmott to be my overseers.

My last will regarding all my lands and tenements in Haryetsham or elsewhere in the county of Kent. My tenement Steden strete, wherein I now dwell, with a barn and certain lands adjoining called Stylles feylds, containing six acres, and two other pieces of land, called Newman and chawke lande in Haryetsham, to wife Avysse and her heirs for the term of thirteen years after my decease, if she live so long, paying the lords rent, and 26s. 8d. a year to John Hynckleye, my son, to whom I leave the said property after my wife's decease or at the end of the said thirteen years, at his death to revert to his son Henry Hynckleye, and his heirs male, and for want of such to the heirs male of my son John, and for want of such to Robert my son and his heirs male and for want of such to the right heirs of my son John. Son Robert to have use of the ponds on said land to draw water. said John 13s. 4d. out of my messuage and lands now in the occupation of son Robert for seven years and a half after my decease [with penalty for non-payment]. Whereas I have reserved unto myself one Loft chamber in the house where my son Robert now dwelleth with free ingress and egress, Avysse my wife shall have the same for one year after my decease. To son Robert Hynckleye for life my messuage where he now dwelleth with all the house and buildings thereto belonging and all the rest of my lands, tenements and hereditaments in the parish of Haryetsham or elsewhere in the County of Kent, and after his decease, I will them to his sons Isaacke and Thomas Hynckleye and their heirs male, and for want of such the next heirs male of son Robert and for want of such to Annys my daughter and her lawful issue, and for want of such the right heirs of son Robert. "Whereas by my suffycyent deed sealed with my seale" I have given to my wife Avysse an annuity of 6s. 8d., it shall be paid out of the land given to son Robert. If any of my sons shall break the entail of my property, or any legatee contest my will, the legacy of such person to be void. Proved at Lenham, Oct. 11, 1577. Inventory 15£, 9s. 6d. (Archdeaconry of Canterbury, Vol. 43, fo. 30)

Will of Robert Hynckley of Harrietesham in the County of Kent, Apr. 6, 1605:

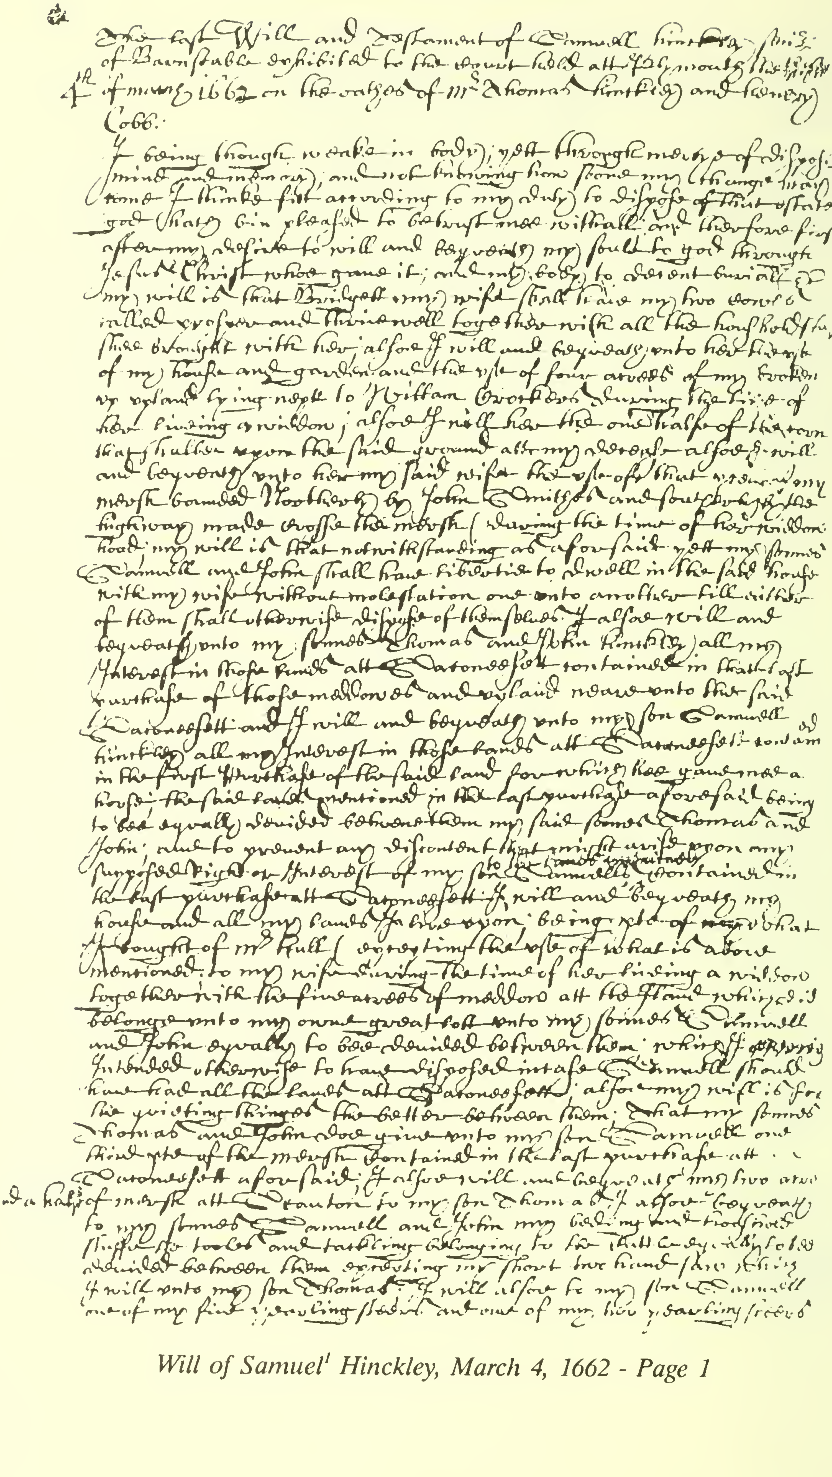
Baptism record for Samuel[1] Hinckley
Harrietsham, England
May 25, 1589

Samuel Hinckley was a dissenter, though on Mar. 14, 1634/5, in order to escape out of his native country, he was obliged to swear that he "conformed to the order and discipline of the Church" of England. He was honest, industrious, and prudent but was not a distinguished man or prominent in political life. He was a juryman and a surveyor of highways and was of good estate for the time. All his children were as well educated as his means permitted. [See Ref. 2]

Samuel Hinckley was confirmed at Tenterden, County Kent, England, certificate signed by John Gee, Vicar of Tenterden, John Austin, Mayor of Tenterden, and Fregift Stacy, Jurat of Tenterden - dated Mar. 15, 1634. [See Ref. 48]

On Mar. 25, 1634, Samuel Hinckley, of Tenterden, County Kent, England, and several other families from that County, making a total of 102, sailed on the Hercules, 200 tons, under Capt. John Witherly, from Sandwich, England, and arrived in Boston, Mass., Sept. 18, 1634. More than half of those passengers settled in Scituate, Mass. [See Ref. 2]



The last Will and Testament of Samuell hinckley Senir: of Barnstable exhibited to the Court held att Plymouth the 4th of march 1662 on the oathes of Mr Thomas hinckley and Henery Cobb:

Inventory of Samuel[l] Hinckley's personal estate

Samuel brought with him his wife, Sarah, and four children (three daughters, Susan, Sarah, Mary and a kinswoman, Elzab, i.e. Elizabeth, according to [Ref. 142]) and went to Scituate, Mass., building a house on lot #19. The street on which he built was named Kent Street. [See Ref. 2] He also owned the Marsh and had land on the southeast next to Mr. Vassal's. His wife joined the church there, Aug. 16, 1635. [See Ref. 48] Samuel lived in Scituate until July 1640 when he removed to West Barnstable, Mass., being one of the first to move there. There are no records of his lands in Barnstable but their location is well known. His house lot was bounded by his son, Thomas, and west by Rowley's Pond, near which, according to tradition, he built his house, a small one-story building with a thatched roof. [See Ref. 2]

In 1637 Samuel took the freeman's oath, although his name appeas on the list of the preceding year.

He was twice indicted for "entertaining strangers", indicating he belonged to the liberal party.

He was penalized 1/2 shilling for "keepeing" various "swine unringed". [See Ref. 155] He was known as Goodman. In 1659 he along with son Thomas was granted "liberty to view and purchase a grant at Saconesset". [See Ref. 156]

Samuel's will, dated Oct. 8, 1662, along with an inventory of his personal property, are reproduced on the preceding pages and a transcription will be found in Appendices A and B.

VIRTUOUS AND PRAISE-
WORTHY MRS. MARY
HINCKLEY, WIFE TO
Mr. THOMAS HINCKLEY
DIED JULY Ye 29, 1703,
IN Ye 73d YEAR OF
HER AGE

She had two children by Nathaniel Glover: Ann Glover who m. July 11, 1673, William Rawson, and Nathaniel Glover who m. Hannah Hinckley. Mrs. Glover's friends were opposed to her marriage to Samuel, reasoning she had 2 children and he had 8 children. She is said to have been beautiful as well as the most accomplished and intelligent woman in the colony. [See Ref. 2] Thomas presented an Inventory of goods and estate of Mrs. Mary Glover, wife of Mr. Nath. Glover, deceased, on his marriage to Mary on 13: 12 mo. 1659. The Court made a division of the estate Aug. 31, 1660; Mr. Habuckuck Glover and John Gurnell were appointed guardians of the children of said Nathaniel Glover. [See Ref. 92] Thomas came over from England after his father and went to Barnstable in 1639. [See Ref. 74] He is listed as a settler in Barnstable, Mass., in 1640. [See Ref. 58] He was known as Mr. and his wife as Mistress. In 1659 he, along with father, Samuel, was granted "liberty to view and purchase a grant at Saconesset". [See Ref. 156] Thomas was the sixth and last governor of the Plymouth Colony (1681 to 1692). He is buried at Great Marsh; a memorial stone is erected on his grave. He was a man when he came to this country and entered into an active part of the conduct of the colonial affairs. He participated in the great Narraganset fight of 1665 and was a representative to the general court. He was King's councilor during Andros, from 1692 to 1706. His correspondence relating to public affairs is Mass. Historical Collections, Vol. 5, 4th series. [See Ref. 2 & 48] No Will for Thomas Hinckley has been located.

Inventory of Samuel[3] Hinckley's personal estate

1699. (In her Will she mentions Hannah but no Jabez). On Dec. 17, 1700, she and her son Thomas signed with their marks, indicating a lack of education. At the time of her marriage to Thomas, she had 11 children and he had 8 by his former marriage. The family of Samuel removed to Harwich, Mass., then to Truro, Mass., and some to Maine. Samuel was a soldier in King Philip's War. The Will of Sarah Huckens, widow, of Harwich, MA, dated Jan. 5, 1726/7, adm. July 5, 1727, (not reproduced here as the original will did not copy well) mentions daughters: Hannah Paine, Mary Bangs, Mercy Crosby; deceased son Thomas Hinckley; sons Samuel Hinckley, Shobal Hinckley, Job Hinckley, Josiah Hinckley and Elnathan Hinckley; granddaughters Sarah Paine, Mary Bangs, & Sarah Bangs; son-in-law Joseph Paine, executor. Freeman, b. Eastham, Mass. ([Ref. 86] says date of birth unknown and date of Mar. 13, 1687, is for Mary, dau. of Edmund Freeman, who was b. 1655), d. aft. May 6, 1747, Brunswick, ME, dau. of Lt. Edmund and Sarah (Mayo) Freeman and granddaughter of Maj. John Freeman. They were dismissed from Church at Harwich to Church at Truro, Mass., abt. April 1719. Samuel and family came to Maine, first to Arundal (Kennebunkport); then Biddeford, where he was named as one of several associated together to form the First Church of Biddeford, and was later deacon of the church; then New Meadows, Brunswick, Maine. In Jan. 1731 Aaron Jewett sued Samuel Hinckley, et al, for trespass. [v. 9, pg. 9, file 41-10, York County Court records] On May 3, 1731, (recorded Aug. 30, 1735), he, of Biddeford, purchased of James Kent, for 150£, 33 acres of land in Biddeford. On Dec. 22, 1736, James and Hannah Kent sold to Robert Padison land in Biddeford formerly sold by James Kent to Samuel Hinkley, of Biddeford, and since taken by execution to satisfy a judgment which Kent obtained against said Hinkley. [see previous two pages for originals of these two deeds and Appendices F & G for typewritten transcript] Samuel was in Brunswick as early as Apr. 25, 1737, when he and others signed a petition to save Fort George from being dismantled.

Signature of Samuel[4] Hinckley

He was chosen Town Clerk and Moderator at first meeting of town Mar. 28, 1739, and was also one of first Selectmen in 1739, holding office through Aug. 30, 1743. He received 200 acres of land from Benjamin Larrabee, Esq., atty. to Proprietors of Brunswick and Topsham, May 21, 1742, for the sum of 50£. He was chosen in May of 1743 to secure a minister but was apparently unsuccessful. In May of 1745 he was again selected to find a minister but still unsuccessful. He was on a committee to choose a schoolmaster in May of 1744. He was one of several granted 100 acres of land in 1744 when the town felt unoccupied land might be sold for public purposes. Samuel Hinckley sold to Agnes, widow of Isaac Hinckley, in behalf of her daughter, Mehitable, for 20 shillings, land bounded southwest by Aaron Hinckley, northeast by James Thompson, southeast by New Meadows, containing 200 acres, Mar. 16, 1751 (Cumberland County Registry of Deeds, Book 2, Page 34). Some children (10) listed in information sent to Library [Aug. 4, 1725], by Miss Alice V. Robinson, of Seattle, Wash., said to have been originally furnished by Josiah Hinckley, of Dedham, Mass. He, along with others, signed a Petition May 30, 1753, for the incorporation of the Second Parish of Georgetown, separating from Bath. [See Ref. 160] A blacksmith, he bought land in Georgetown, ME, 1759 and sold land in 1762, 1765, and 1772. Several sources [See Ref. 14, 37, 48 & 154, Vol. 5, pg. 66] say he married his fifth wife at the age of 75 and had 4 sons all who settled in the eastern part of Maine. Also, Family of Pleasant River, Washington County, ME, says "Sheuball Hinckley had 27 children by his 5 wives, and he d. Hallowell, ME." NE Reg, vol. 8, p. 170, has record of letter dated Portland, ME, Jan. 10, 1854, from one H. K. Hinckley stating his great-grandfather Shubael Hinkley, of 'Old York' had 4 wives, 20 children and lived to 92. One Shubal Hinkley, of "a place called Number Four [now Steuben] not of any Town but in the County of Lincoln and State of Massachusetts Bay, in New England, husbandman," sold for 40£ to Isaac Patten 100 acres in said Number Four on the East side of Narraguagus River, deed dated Mar. 23, 1779, recorded in Washington County Registry of Deeds Aug. 7, 1786, Vol. 1, Pg. 57. Sometime prior to the Revolution, a Shubael Hinckley settled on the east side of the river, then moved to the Invervale beyond the Archer place (Narraguagus). [See Ref. 3] Shubael Hinckley is listed as a settler in Cherryfield, ME, in 1763. [See Ref. 154, vol. 8, pg. 4] Shubael Hinkley, of Narragaugus, was in a company raised

Oct. 1854, Waterloo, Clark Co., Missouri, m. 1825, George Greenleaf, b. Jan. 27, 1790, Starks, ME, d. Sept. 1871, Waterloo, Missouri, son of John and Anna (Pierce-Roberts) Greenleaf. Left Maine with family in 1849 and settled in Clark Co., Missouri, living for a time near Kahoka, Missouri, at Waterloo, Missouri, then a thriving town. Only a cemetery and records of the location now exist. Later they lived in Kahoka, Missouri, and in Alexandria, Missouri, on the Mississippi River, south of Des Moines, Iowa. Alexandria was a very important shipping center about this time but was destroyed by floods and greater developments to the north. This area was the scene of much trouble during the Civil War period. Within 20 years most of the family had left the area. Few records are available because of the destruction prevalent during that time, by guerillas, by armies of the North and South. Only the family of Eric and Mary E. (Sweet) Greenleaf have continuing records available to Mrs. Byland. Members of the family went to Calif. and took records with them. [See Ref. 20]

One day while cleaning a catch of fish, a negro appeared and asked if she could buy a cod. On discoverying that she had forgotten her pocketbook, she asked Orin to hold her small baby while she went back home to get some money. The woman never came back so he took the child home to his wife who was nursing a small baby of her own. She was brought up in the Hinckley family and treated as one of their own. When the child was 21 yrs. old, her mother came back and said she was a runaway slave and was afraid that if she was caught her baby would be taken away from her. Knowing that Orin was a kind man, she had left the child in his care. The mother wanted the girl to live with her, but the Hinckley family was the only family she had ever known, and her mother was like a stranger to her. [See Ref. 13]

I being though weake in body; yett through mercye of disposing mind and memory; and not knowing how soone my change may come I thinke fitt according to my duty to dispose of that estate God hath bid pleased to betrust mee withall; and therefore first after my desire to will and bequeath my soule to God through Jesus Christ who gave it; and my body to decent burial & my will is that Bridgett my wife shall have my two cowes called prosper and thrivewell together with all the household stuff shee brought with her; alsoe I will and bequeath unto her the use of my house and garden; and the use of four acrees of my broken up upland lying next to William Crockers during the time of her living a widow; also I will her the one half of the corn that shalbee upon the said ground att my decease, alsoe I will and bequeath unto her my said wife the use of that parte of my marsh bounded northerly by John Smithes and southerly by the highway made crosse the mersh during the time of her widdow hood; my will is that nothwithstanding as aforesaid yett my sonnes Samuell and John shall have libertie to dwell in the said house with my wife without molestation one unto another till either of them shall otherwise dispose of themselves. I alsoe will and bequeath unto my sonnes Thomas and John Hinckley all my interest in those lands att Saconeesett contained in that last purchase of those meadowes and upland neare unto the said Saconeesett and I will and bequeath unto my son Samuell Hinckley all my interest in those lands att Saconeesett contain[ed] in the first purchase of the said land for which hee gave mee a horse; the said lands mentioned in the last purchase aforesaid being to bee equally divided betwene them my said sonnes Thomas and John; and to prevent any discontent that might arise upon any supposed right or interest of my son Samuells to the lands [words "to the lands" and another word with a line through it inserted between lines] contained in the last purchase att Saconeesett; I will and bequeath my house and all my lands I live upon; being pte of [word crossed out] what I bought of M[r] Hull (excepting the use of what is above mentioned; to my wife during the time of her liveing a widdow together with the five acrees of meddow att the Iland which did belonge unto my owne great lott unto my sonnes Samuell and John equally to bee devided between them; which I [word crossed out] intended otherwise to have disposed incase Samuell should have had all the lands att Saconeesett; also my will is for the quieting things the better between them; that my sonnes Thomas and John doe give unto my son Samuell one third pte of the mersh contained in the last purchase att Saconeeset aforesaid; I alsoe will and bequeath my two acres and a half of mersh att Stanton to my son Thomas. I also bequeath to my sonnes Samuell and John my beding and houshold stuffe the tooles and tackling belonging to the cattle equally to bee devided between them excepting my short two hand saw which I will unto my son Thomas; I will also to my son Samuell one of my five yearling steers and one of my two yearling steers and to my son John the other both of my five yearling steers and of my two yearling steers and to my sonne Samuell my mare called frisk and to John my young mare and to each of them two ewes. I also will and bequeath to my daughters Susanna Sarah Mary and Elizabeth to each of them the vallue of one shilling and to each of theire children the said value; I also will unto Samuell Hinckley the son of my son Thomas my yearling coult that now suckes and the first coult thereof to Mary Hinckley his sister and the first coult of hers to her brother Thomas. I will also to Bathsheba Hinckley my heifer calfe and one ewe; and to the rest of my son Thomas his children to each of them the value of one shilling. I will alsoe to Samuell the son of my daughter Cobb the first coult my old mare shall have and the first coult of that to his brother Jonathan Cobb. The rest of my estate I leave to my exequitors to pay my debts and such necessary charge as shall arise and I doe heerby appoint and authorize my son Thomas Hinckley to bee my exequitor and my son in law Henery Cobb to bee my overseer to see this my last will and testament bee pformed according to the true intent thereof; It is my will alsoe that my sonnes Samuel and John [and John inserted between the lines] should attend to the councell and advise of my sonnes Thomas Hinckley and Henery Cobb whoe I desire may have an eye of them for theire best good; In witness whereof as to my last will and testament according to the pmises I have heereunto sett my hand this 8th of October 1662.
